WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS.

The Children at the Leake and Watts Orphan Home, in Hawthorne-ave., Yonkers, had a merry Christmas Eve. At 7:30 o'clock they gathered in the assembly room, and a short entertainment was given them. It consisted of the singing of carols, instrumental solos by Mr. Baker and Miss Hawkins, and vocal selections by Miss Barnard, Miss Schanz and Miss Hawkins. At the end of the programme Santa Claus made his ap-pearance in a dog-cart, driving a donkey, much to delight of the children. He brought with him nearly 20 presents, which he distributed among the little ones. The usual Christmas dinner was en loyed yesterday. The children of the Yonkers Teu-tonia Society were entertained last night by a little play called the "Three Orphans," which was presented by Harry Arndt, August Koch, Otto Kiebe, J. Ramme, Mrs. Ramme, and Miss Anna After it, the Christmas tree was lighted and presents were distributed. The members of the Yonkers Turn Verein gave a series of leaus for their children, interspersed with music At the Westminster Presbyterian Church, the Sun day-school took part in a pretty Christmas service called "The Day Star." . A pretty home wedding took place last night at No. 48 Caroline-ave. Miss Neille J. Neil was married to Alexander Cochrane, the senior member of the firm of Cochrane & Colquboun, by the Rev. Charles E. Allison. John Walker was the best man, and Miss Emma Nell, sister of the bride, the maid of honor. The newly-married couple, after a short wedding trip, will live at No. 66 Warburton-ave. . . There will be a meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners this afternoon, at headquarters, at 430 o'clock.
This evening a fair will open in St. Joseph's Hall, under the auspices of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church. Judge David McAdam, of New-York, and ex-Senator Frank P. Treanor, of Yonkers will make addresses, and there will be music, readings and recitations. The fair will continue four days. day-school took part in a pretty Christmas service

WHITE PLAINS.

Christmas Day was duly observed in White Plains in nearly all the churches, Services were held in commemoration of the day in Grace Episcoheld in commemoration of the day in Grace Episco-pal Church and in St. John's Roman Catholle Church. The musical programme was of more than the usual order. Sheriff Duffy entertained the 290 inmates of the County Jul with a dinner of chicken, potatoes, turnips, ples, tea and oranges. The unfortunates in the House of Nazareth and at Bloomingdale had extra libertles in the evening. Several of the churches held their Christmas tree Celebrations.

NEW-JERSEY.

Christmas was heartily celebrated in Newark, and all classes entered into the spirit of the day poor were well remembered, and the inmates of all the public institutions, including the jail and penitentiary, were treated to Christmas cheer. Shopkeepers generally report that the Christmas trade was exceptionally good and much better than that of a year ago. There was an extraordinary that of a year ago. There was an extraordinary demand for toys and holiday goods of all kinds, some of the stocks of dealers being exhausted before Christmas Eve. The Tribune reporter visited a score of shopkeepers and asked them about their Christmas trade. The answer invariably returned was that it was surprisingly large. It was apparent, they said, that the working people generally had paid off the Indebtedness incurred during the long depression in industrial enterprises, and had begun to have enough to spare out of their wages to bay little luxuries.

JERSEY CITY.

A light wagon, in which was seated Timothy Clare, of No. 23 Jackson Place, Jersey City, was run down at Varick and Grand sts., on Christmas Five, by trolley No. 3% of the Jersey City and Newark line. The wagon was smashed and Clare received severe internal injuries. He was taken to the City Hospital.

RUTHERFORD.

The compromise between the Borough Council of Rutherford and the Clark, Raymond & Hastings estate, by which the latter was to pay $5,000 in set-tlement of the claims of the borough for back taxes and assessments, was upset at the meeting of the incil on Monday night, the resolution passed at the last meeting was reconsidered, and the compromise was unanimously rejected, Mayor Shafer, although ill, writing a letter advocating the reject tion. As stated in Saturday's Tribune, the lawyer for the estate considered that the $8,000 also in cluded a claim of about $450 against Mr. Raymond. This construction of the Council's compromise res This construction of the Council's compromise res-clution made the borough sacrifice $800 of its claim instead of about $50. Collector Burrows refused to accept the check offered by the estate until he had further instructions, and the Council's action on Morday night was the result. Some recent real-estate transactions seem to indicate that the estate proposes to put its property on the market. A lively assintion against the use of certain streets by the Union Traction Company for an electric railway is being conducted. A petition against the use of Chestinuts, has been signed

SOMERVILLE.

An interesting scene was witnessed in the new Second Reformed Church of Somerville last Sunday morning, when the congregation made a subscription to pay off its entire debt. The church, which is of the Italian-Gothic style of architecture and with the land about $5,000, was dedicated last Tuesday, in the presence of an audience of 1,000 persons, including some of the most prominent min-isters of the Reformed Church. The pastor, the Edward Griffin Read, reported that the permanent debt on the church would be $12,609. An offer was received on Thursday from a former member, S. P. Dunham, the drygoods merchant of Trenton, proposing to give $2,990, on condition that the balance should be pickged by December 31. The pastor hald the offer before the congregation on Sunday morning, and in half an hour they pickged over $12,900; thus not only securing Mr. Danham's generous gift and the payment of the permanent debt, but providing for the clearing off of all floating indebtedness. This is a great achievement for a congregation that is not wealthy, but unusually libers! Trenton, proposing to give $3,900, on condition that

THE ACONITE STOOD FATALLY CONVENIENT, Mrs. Jane Lyttle, fifty-one years old, of No. 117 East Twenty-second-st., died early yesterday from the effects of poison taken by mistake for medicine. She was the wife of ex-Mayor Hewitt's coachman. Lyttle and his family occupied apartments over the The Hewitts returned last week from their country home in New-Jersey. Mrs. Lyttle developed malaria while in the country, and since she came back to the city has been in a nervous condition. Quinine was prescribed for her in a solution.

The medicine was kept on a shelf near which stood a bottle of aconite for use in the stables. The medicine was always administered by the sick woman's daughter. Mrs. Lyttle arose about 6 o'clock yesterday morning, and without awakening her daughter looked for the medicine. She noticed the bottle containing the aconite, and thinking it was her medicine swallowed a mouthful. Her cries of pain aroused the family, and the terrible mistake was at once discovered.

A messenger was sent for Dr. John R. Con way, of No. 139 Lexington-ave., who answered and did everything that was possible to save the woman's life, but all in vain. She died within forty minutes after taking the poison. The woman's husband has been in the employ of the Hewitt family for ten years.

THE MESSES. CRIMMINS WERE THE VICTIMS. Frank D. Jennings, thirty-four years old, of No. 207 Keap-st., Brooklyn, was held in $2,500 ball by Justice Meade in Yorkville Court yesterday, charged with larceny. Jennings was formerly an employe of John D. and T. E. Crinmins, contractors, and was discharged for inefficiency. He, with a confederate. William Sheehan, twenty years old, of No. 439 East Seventy-sixth-st., is accused of fixing up a plan to defraud the firm. Vouchers for pay were drawn up and the "O. K." of the engineer obtained by fraud. The vouchers were cashed by Shoehan. The scheme was discovered, and both are now held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

SHOT IN A QUARREL OVER A TURKEY. A number of colored men, while raffling for a turkey at No. 476 Adelphi-st, yesterlay morning, began to quarrel. They went out into the street to settle the dispute and Robert Bennett, of No Adelphi-st., shot John Richardson, of No. 458 Adelphi-st., in the head. A severe scalp wound was caused, which was dressed at the Homoeopathic Hospital. Bennett fled when he found he had wounded his opponent, but was arrested later.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN. Corporation Counsel McDonald has been requested to pass upon the question whether policemen and can ride in the street-cars and upon the elevated trains without paying fare after January 1, under the new Constitutional provision.

George Thesode, alias James Golden, who was arrested on Sunday for a theft at No. 19 Atlantiave, has been identified as the thief who stole vedding presents valued at $00 from the house of Mathias Matthews, in East Orange, N. J. The stolen property was found in his possession.

The Woman's Health Protective Association will have a meeting in Historical Hall to-morrow noon, at which addresses will be made by Mayor Schieren, Mrs. Josephine Shaw, Mrs. James Scrimgeour and others.

A MISSIONARY'S VIEW OF CHINA.

THE REV. DR. HENRY BLODGETT, WHO WENT TO THE FLOWERY KINGDOM IN 1854, TELLS OF THE EMPEROR, LI HUNG CHANG

AND THE PRESENT WAR. The Rev. Dr. Henry Blodgett, who has just returned from Peking, is visiting his son-in-law, the Rev. Dr. W. R. Richards, of Plainfield, N. J. Dr. Blodgett went to China in 1834, and has been con-nected since then with the Congregational Missions at Tien-Tsin and Peking, removing to the capital in 1864. He is the senior missionary of that mission. Dr. Blodgett returned to this country on December . In an interview yesterday he said:

S. In an interview yesterday he said:

The Emperor of China lives in the interior, or "Prohibited City," with his wives. He only comes out to worship six times a year, and occasionally to visit his pleasure garden in the northwest part of the city. He gives audiences to his mandarins, Privy Counsellor, princes of the blood and high military commanders daily. He is inaccessible to foreigners, except when he gives occasional audiences to ambassadors from other countries. In case the Japarese should invade Peking, the Emperor would probably withdraw to Jehol, Just as one of his predecessors did in 1890, when the British invaded the city. The anti-foreign sentiment in Pekin is greatly exaggrated. Of course the Chinese do not like foreigners, and if they were not restrained they might do injury. Shortly bechurch, and completely quieted all manifestations of foreign representatives, the Emperor issued a proclamation was tacked up in every mission church, and completely quieted all manifestations toward foreigners. No Americans or other foreigners are allowed by treaty to do business in Peking. In other parts of China little business is done by Americans, most of what used to be American having passed into English hands.

Dr. Blodgett says there is little resentment on the

Dr. Blodgett says there is little resentment on the part of the Chinese in general to American restriction of immigration. In fact, they know little about it, on account of the lack of newspapers. The high officials rather favor it, because they do not wish their followers to leave the country Robert Hart, who is head of the Chinese customs service, recently told Dr. Blodgett that the Chinese did not care anything about the action of this Gov-did not care anything about the action of this Government.

"Li Hung Chang has been greatly misunderstood," said the minister. "He believes in the Western world civilization, without the Christian religion, and had he had his way, the Chinese would have been educated in the arts of modern warfare. The defeat of China, he says, came from a supercilious distregard of the advance of the world in warfare. The Rev. Charles Fenney, an American missionary, teaches the children of Li Hung chang the English branches. He also has a private school, which is patronized by the mandarins and rich men, who send their sons to him for these branches. Li Hung Chang's liberalization is only his belief in the fact that in the arts and sciences the rest of the world long ago passed China. There are in Teking three Congregational churches, three Methodist, three Presisterian, one Alliance and six English Protestant. To these the Emperor extended protection, mainly because he feels friendly to them, as they educate the people."

Dr. Blodgett believes the war is practically at an end, the severe weather and the general foreign sentiment against it being too much he thinks, for the Japanese to resist at the present time.

THE SETON HOSPITAL TO OPEN JANUARY 1. The Seton Hospital for Consumptives, at Spuyten Duyvil, will open its doors for the reception of patients on January 1, and to-day Sister Marie Dolores, who will have charge of the institution, will assume her position there and begin the arrangements for the formal opening of the hospital. Sister Marie Dolores was known in the world as Miss Euphemia Van Rensselaer, a member of the well-known New-York family of that name and a sister of the Rev. Father Henry Van Rensselaer, the Jesuit priest. For a number of years she has been in Nassau, Bahama Islands, where five years ago she founded four free schools for colored children, and which have since been under her care. Sister Dolores arrived in this city a few days ago, and has been staying with Sister M. Irene at the New-York Foundling Asylum. The hospital will be under the medical care of Dr. J. W. Roosevelt.

Since January 11 last, when the new steamer Patrol went into commission, the met the calls for duty on the steamer are invariably such as require celerity of movement, it became absolutely necessary to have the men nearby. It was therefore necessary to build on the pier a suitable place for those who were not provided for on the boat. The new quarters are on the north side of the pler, and the men can almost lump out of their bunks to their stations, as the Patrol is moored along-lide. There are four rooms, and they include an officer's sitting-room, men's sitting-room, skeeping-room and the office.

The Harbor squad is composed of forty-six menone captain, three sergeants, four roundsmen, twenty-eight patrolmen, two engineers, one pilot, three deckhands, three fire-fire, two offers, one saling master and two doormen. The captain is Theron C. Copeland.

A GOOD WORK IN NEED OF FUNDS. A letter has been sent to The Tribune signed by the Rev. Dr. Henry Mottet, the Rev. Dr. W. R. Huntington, the Rev. Arthur Brooks and the Rev. Dr. David H. Grept, appealing to the public for aid in the reorganization of the work formerly carried on by the Home of Industry and Refuge for Discharged Convicts, No. 121 West Sixty-third-st. The subject of incorporating it is under consideration by the Prison Association of New-York, and it is understood that the debt upon the property is the only obstacle. The sum of $30,000 must be raised by January 1 to reduce the debt or the work must be abandoned. Pledges, contingent upon the full amount being raised, are earnestly asked for. The

My Dear Sir: Replying o youd note of this morning about the Home of Industry and Refuge for Discharged Convicts, I would say that I have always held the same high opinion of its usefulness as you entertain, and I carnestly trust that some arrangement can be made by which it can be transferred to and maintained by the Prison Association, so that its beneficent work may be continued. I should consider it a great calamity to the charitable system of New-York if the Home of

As an agency to which to refer real or pretended

NO CROWD AT ST. LEGS CHURCH.

FATHER DUCEY SAYS HE IS GLAD OF IT-DR. M'GLYNN PERHAPS THE GAINER.

A Christmas high mass was celebrated in the decorated St. Leo's Roman Catholic Church yesterday. The Rev. Father Ducey was the celebrant, assisted by the Rev. Father Boniface as deacon, and Father Donovan as subdeacon. The Rev. Edgar Treacy was the master of ceremonies. A. B. Taylor was the organist, Car-Lexow Investigating Committee, Courthouse, 19:30 los Hasselbrink the violinist, and an orchestra took part in the services. The soloists were Mme Salvatti, soprano; Miss Julia O'Connor, contralto; A. R. Silbernagel, tenor, and Emile Coletti, bary-tone. The Gospel of the mass was from St. John. but before delivering his short sermon Father Ducey said that this was the first time in years that the church was not crowded. He was glad it was not, he said, as he did not like crowds, and those who only come to church on Christmas to glad. He said the empty seats were doubtless due to the fact that many persons had gone to hear Dr. McGlynn, and he was glad to see that they

In his sermon Father Ducey denied that the age had lost its faith. It was the duty of Catho he said, to shine in literature, in art, and to help uphold the purity of the State. "Let us look at Christ as a man, said Father Ducey, "and let Christ as a man, sald Father Ducey, "and let us learn from him the lesson of true manhood, the love of all we should love, our country, our State and our city. It is not a question of creeds, Men are seeing to-day that there are platforms large enough for us all to stand on. Respect your neighbor's religious rights and make him have respect for yours." Father Ducey announced that there would be no vespers. He said he had been in the church since 3 a m., and that sometimes it was as hard to hold out in spiritual matters as in other things.

The Jockey Club has been criticised so severely that one of its most influential members declared that the press and the public did not want high-class sport, but were anxious to attend races given under the auspices of the men who have brought about the present gloomy state of affairs. Everybody who desires the perpetuation of honest racing is in favor govern the turi army and nonestry, without rear or favor. Every trainer, jockey and owner should be licensed, and, furthermore, the clubs should not be permitted to race unless licensed by a State emmission. All such disreputable affairs as the aspeth abomination should be suppressed and everybody in any manner associated with that class of racing be prevented from managing racing at any track licensed by the State commissioners.

THE CHURCH OF THE HOLY CROSS WAS UNBEAR-ABLY CROWDED-A PURSE FOR THE FATHER.

The Rev. Dr. Edward McGlynn celebrated high mass yesterday morning at the Church of the Holy Cross, in Forty-second-st., between Eighth and Ninth aves. The mass which Dr. McGlynn celebrated began at 4:30 o'clock, but there was not standing-room in the church long before that hour. Many failed to obtain admission. Policemen had to keep the crowd back. Several women were taken out half fainting.

The parishioners of St. Stephen's, Dr. McGlynn's old church, came in great numbers, anxious to hear their former paster once more from a New-York pulpit. The deacon of the mass was the Rev. J. F. Smith, and the sub-deacon the Rev. John J. McGee. After the First Gospel was read, ulster. We're going to make money on it; you're going to be comfortable

John J. McGee. After the First Gospei was read, Dr. McGlynn delivered a brief sermon. After the mass Dr. McGlynn held a reception in the sacristy. His old parishioners of St. Stephen's crowded around him, shook him warmly by the hand and wished him a happy Christmas.

The church was again thronged at 11 o'clock. The celebrant of the high mass was the Rev. Dr. Charles McCready, the paster of the church; the deacon was the Rev. R. J. Keefe; the sub-deacon, the Rev. M. J. F. Scanlon, and the master of ceremonies the Rev. John F. Smith. Dr. McGlynn preached on the gospel of the mass, which was taken from St. John. Afterward, Dr. McGlynn walked through the church. Everybody reached forward to shake hands with him. After the mass the priests of the rectory had dinner in the parish house adjoining the church. Dr. McGlynn was the guest of honor. A MORTGAGE GIVEN BY J. F. CALDWELL

SURPRISE THAT THE WELL-KNOWN STARTER HAD TO TAKE SUCH A STEP.

The news that James F. Caldwell, the wellnown starter of racehorses, has mortgaged the brownstone house, No. 311 West Fifty-seventh-st., for $20,000, has created great surprise among horse men. The mortgage is made to Amos R. Eno, of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, and is for three years. Mr. Caldwell is well known as a starter, often being called the "prince of starters," and for years dropped the flag on the leading legitimate race-tracks. For some reason, said to be the tempting offer of a large yearly salary, he left the big tracks, and joined the outlaws and smaller tracks, officiating at Guttenburg, Clifton, Saratoga and Brighton Beach. Mr. Caldwell has, it is said, been sceiving large salaries, and just why he was forced to mortgage his home is not known. It is forced to mortgage his home is not known. It is understood that for work at some of the smaller meetings last year Mr. Cafawell has failed to receive his entire remuneration, and he has probably realized his mistake in forsaking the big tracks for Guttenburg and courses of that lik. It has been said that he was in yearly receipt of a handsome salary, as much as $25,000, for his services at the tracks controlled, by Mr. Walbaum, but this is probably an exaggeration.
